Agape Weekend Intensives

Biblical and Theological Studier for
Practical Ministry
Agape Church of Christ
Portland

Courses for 2012

Many ministers will agree that our greatest learning happens after seminary/graduate school. While schools prepare students for ministry, practical ministry prepares Christians for kingdom leadership.

Agape Weekend Intensives are weekend encounters with scripture, theology, Biblical studies, and practical ministry.

Advanced theological education can be expensive and a sacrifice that many in ministries are not able to make at this time. Agape Weekend Intensives are designed to introduce students to courses taught by seminary professors in a ministry context. These short courses require study and instruction with application to their current ministry.
